

Hymenocallis littoralis, Spider Lily (White) - Bulb

Its whole bloom a spider-like look and it is beautiful to grow such an elegant flower.

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

41

Ask a question about this product

Description

Description for Hymenocallis littoralis, Spider Lily (White)

It is a perennial herb. The bulb may be 7 to 10 cm in diameter. The flowers are large, white and without a stalk. Each flower tube is 14 to 17 cm long or longer than this. It may be grown in the water.

The flowers have the delightful fragrance, with up to 8 flowers blooming on each flower stalk at a time. It grows in clumps naturally and perfect as a ground cover below shady trees.

Common name	Flower colours	Bloom time	Height	Difficulty
Beach spider lily	White	Mid-summer to late autumn	Up to 3 inches	Easy to grow

Planting and care

It is well grown in a warmer coastal region whereas widely cultivated and naturalized in many tropical countries. You should maintain relative humidity around 40 to 50 percent.

Sunlight	Soil	Water	Temperature	Fertilizer
Full sunlight to partial shade	Well-drained soil	Moderate	Warm season 21 to 29 degrees C; minimum winter	Prefer an organic fertilizer.

temperature of 16 degrees
C

Caring for Hymenocallis littoralis

- Give them plenty of water throughout the growing season.
- Add sand to the soil for good drainage.
- Re-pot in spring when you see crowded growth.
- Bring a plant back indoors when the temperature drops to 13 degrees C at night.

Typical uses of Hymenocallis littoralis

Special features: Vanilla scented; Hymenocallis littoralis is included in the Tasmanian Fire Service's list of low flammability plants.

Culinary use: NA

Ornamental use: Hymenocallis is often grown as an ornamental. Beautiful in groups as a mass display.

Medicinal use: NA

References

- <http://www.flowersofindia.net/catalog/slides/Spider%20Lily.html>
- <http://www.guide-to-houseplants.com/spider-lily.html>

Reviews

Tuesday, 08 August 2017

Can this plant be grown through seeds

Bhargavi

Tuesday, 18 April 2017

Which other plant can be grown with this plant.

Parvati Gujju

Thursday, 06 April 2017

Which other plant can be grown with this plant.

Jolly Joy Monteroyo

Thursday, 05 January 2017

Perfect plant to bring contrast colours in your garden.

Deepika Aggarwal

Wednesday, 21 December 2016

Perfect plant to bring contrast colours in your garden.

Anand Prasad

More reviews